

[00:00:00] Welcome to Multi-Passionate Mastery quickies. These bite-size episodes will give you inspiration, motivation, or something interesting to think about as you move through the rest of your week.

[00:00:09] For today's quickie, I want you to consider that you've already done 90% of the work. You already have the great ideas. You already know that there are things in this world that can be improved. You already know that you want to help people. Maybe you've even already come up with a solution or a way that you want to help those around you.

[00:00:32] You already have so much inside of you that you need to get that work out into the world. You might have even already created a ton of amazing content. You've already done 90% of the work. All that's left to do is dig deep and find that last 10%. Hire the coach and get the help that you need. Get an accountability partner so that you don't keep missing your deadlines.

[00:01:00] Instead of thinking about what you have to do, start focusing on what you get to do. These small shifts will help you with that last 10%. But never forget: you've already done 90% of the work.
